

Agency Brief: SMM agency for Yango

Objective:

To find social media marketing agency that understands the local culture, traditions, and nuances of CIV, Senegal and Cameroon. The agency must have French and English-speaking team members and a proven track record of engaging with French-speaking audiences effectively.

About us:

Yango is a ride-hailing service that gets people where they want to go safely, quickly and affordably.

All-in-One App: Access all the details about the driver, car, and route in one app.

Route Sharing: Keep your loved ones informed with real-time route sharing. No

More Calls: Book a taxi with one tap in the app.

These are the services that are available in each market;

CIV – Rides (36%), delivery (25%), food (38%), sell & buy (1? %) and maps.

Our organization would like to enhance its presence in the region by leveraging a culturally attuned and locally relevant social media strategy. We aim to deliver content that resonates with both nationals and expatriates/tourists, considering the region's unique demographic and cultural dynamics.

Scope of Work:

- Social Media Management: Develop, execute, and monitor culturally relevant campaigns across platforms such as Instagram, Facebook, TikTok and any other channel you deem to be impactful.
- Content Creation: Produce French content tailored to Francophone audiences, incorporating local idioms, trends, and culturally appropriate visuals.
- Community Engagement: Create a community with a great engagement rate. Foster meaningful interactions with our audience, focusing on creating a dialogue that reflects an understanding of their needs and values.
